President's Report

Our next competition day is Sunday 24th June at Terry Reserve. Entries close 30th May.

It is most unfortunate that we have lost the first two competitions days this year due to wet weather, in the meantime your committee has not been idle and has organised several excellent training days to assist our club members and their horses improve every aspect of their dressage performance.

I can only hope that our members recognise the opportunities being offered by your club and support these special events, as they just might give you that 'winning edge'.

The two major clinics that are coming up very quickly are the Andrew & Warwick McLean Clinic on the 15th and 16th of June, being held at Maxine Frupp's arena in Berry. The flyer for this clinic is attached.

To have these two horsemen in Berry for two days is a real coup, Andrew is globally recognised as a horse behaviouralist and has solved problems for the world's top riders including Anky Van Gruseven.

If your horse has any handling or riding problems at all that might be holding you back from a successful riding career then it is certainly worth your while to investigate having a lesson (Private & Shared) or at least attending the 2 hour Seminar on Saturday morning.

Secondly, the Brett Parbery evening on the 7th June, see flyer below. Any of you who attended the CDI recently will have been mesmerized by the performance of this amazing rider.

President's Report Continued

SPONSORSHIP: We have been very fortunate to have had such excellent support from our Sponsors (listed in Newsletter). The loss of two competition days however has left us short of funds for the year. The committee would sincerely appreciate any fundraising ideas that you think might appeal to our members to help make up the current shortfall.

If you have an idea you can either email the Editor: Jenifer Symes on jensymes@bigpond.com or call Katherine on 42280390.

TIMBER POLES TO SURROUND NEW ARENAS:

We have recently approached Integral Energy for old electricity poles. Whilst we have been given some encouragement it would be great if anyone has a specific contact/s that may be able to assist in securing boundary poles.

NEWSLETTER: If you have any news of interest, photographs of our members performing on their horses, please email jensymes@bigpond.com. Jenifer is our new Editor and will be waiting to hear from you. Remember the more information you can provide the more interesting and exciting our Newsletter will become and don't be shy we would love photographs of you on your horse as well.

MAURICE BRUCE: Finally I would like to wish Maurice and Jane Bruce all the very best following Maurice's very unfortunate accident at the recent Shoalhaven Club day.

On behalf of all our members, your committee has forwarded our best wishes and support to our very loved fellow rider.

Kind Regards

Doug Symes

SCEC PROTOCOL DAY

13TH May, 2007

Terry Reserve

From the Secretary's Desk

For once we were blessed with great riding weather, overcast, pleasant breeze and great grounds surface.

In spite of conflicting activities such as the Canberra Classic and Mother's Day, it was good to see a number of newcomers take advantage of a quiet and relaxed opportunity to try a first test or give young horses a non threatening experience.

Liz Sugar, who kindly donated her time, was kept busy judging various tests and all riders were really appreciative of her useful hints and suggestions, while Tracy Stead shared her expertise during set lessons.

The saddle fitter was a great hit with at least a couple of members discovering that their saddles could be magically made a whole lot more comfortable for their mounts, not to mention give them much better riding postures.

Thanks to Anne Reynen for her beauty tips and treatment in the presentation department. We will expect to see some much improved turn-outs next comp!

Thanks also to the Saville family for providing a canteen and looking after our guests so well.

Lets all put an order in for the same sort of weather for our next comp!!!

See you then, Mary

'CANBERRA CLASSIC'
11th & 12th May 2007 (ACT Dressage Club)

SCEC was well represented at the 'Canberra Classic' on the weekend when Maxine Fripp, Ros Quist, Jenifer Symes, Julee Jones & Pat Bleulell turned in some great performances.

The absence of Maurice & Jane Bruce was sincerely felt and all were disappointed when Robyn & Alycia Targa had to pull out at the last moment.

The fun started on Friday afternoon when the girls and their horses arrived at Exhibition Park in Canberra and moved into Stable Block W2, spreading straw, stacking hay, carting water and generally showing the horses around, before settling them in and heading off to their own luxury accommodation close by.

Maxine & Honey

Pat Bleulell & Daughter Eve
attaching Saddlecloth Numbers

A brisk sunny morning greeted the team on Saturday, the temperature as low as 3 degrees before the sun came up. There was much rubbing of hands and steamy conversations as the plaiting started around 7.30pm. We thought of all the SCEC Members going to the Protocol Day at Terry Park on Sunday and the plaiting demonstration by Anne from 'The Horses Tailor' when Ros Quist gave us a plaiting demonstration of her own.

SCEC Life Member Ros Quist

No, Ros is not frothing at the mouth, her mouth is full of white elastic bands. We couldn't believe she could still yell at her horse for not 'Standing Still!'.

Thanks ACT Dressage - A great weekend was had by all!

Julee Jones was feeling very delicate after a bout of food poisoning and had a mixed weekend, however Maxine's horse float is 'magic' it contains everything you could possibly want or need, even Imodium. You only have to say 'I need a.....' and Maxine would 'pop' out of the 'magic' float and say 'Here you are'...amazing! Even a reclining chair.

KUDU & ALYCIA CAN DO!

Owned by SCEC Members Maurice & Jane Bruce the stunning AWAH Reg. Trak. mare Kudu is making headlines once again – this time ridden by SCEC Member Young Rider Alycia Targa. – Story below

Neversfelde Kudu was born in 1990 and is by Kassiber (imp. Trak) out of a thoroughbred mare. She has always had a super trainable temperament although she likes to be a bit of a girl. Showing off in the paddock at a very early age it quickly became obvious she was very special. Kudu was Aust.Prix St Georges and Inter I champion for Maurice Bruce many times and was ready to compete Grand Prix in 1998. Kudu showed great talent and was short-listed for the Sydney Olympics in 2000, however she really didn't like to piaffe on the centre-line as the test required and so was retired from this level. Jane then took over the ride and had many hours of pleasure riding her and many successful competitions. She is a favorite of many spectators throughout Australia and has performed to the same freestyle music for the last 10 years. Young Rider Alycia Targa formed a great partnership with Kudu from day 1 and is doing a super job to produce top quality tests on this very brilliant mare. Kudu recently carried Alycia to recent success including NSW Young Rider FEI – CDI –YI 2007: The Vetsearch 'Aachens Challenge' (Vic. Champs) and selected for the National Squad. There's more to come we will keep you posted.

Congratulations to Maurice, Jane, Alycia & Kudu.
