SOUTH COAST EQUESTRIAN CLUB INC NEWSLETTER

May 2010

From the President May 2010

I'm in trouble because I'm late in writing this (pressure of work is my excuse ... and yes, unfortunately, like many of our members, I have to work to support my horse habit)... but having been at the CDI at Sydney International Equestrian Centre (SIEC) on the weekend, I am now inspired to take pen to paper. CDI this year was very good, and I'm not only talking about the shopping !! Some new horses coming up to Grand Prix level, giving the names we know and love some very stiff competition. Rachel Sanna and Alabaster did a great Kur, narrowly beating Rozzie Ryan on Jive Magic, and Whisper IV ridden by his new New Zealand owner coming in third. A very special night.

Back to earth ... the SCEC earth that is !! We had the Brett Parbery clinic early April. Brett came along for the Saturday evening before the clinic (amazingly, given that he had only arrived back from Europe the day before), and although the audience was small we had a great evening with Brett talking about his recent experience in Europe with Sam (Victory Salute) and Edward Gal. Given the rainy weather on the Saturday the clinic on the Sunday was moved at short notice to Maxine Fripp's indoor arena (a big thank you to Maxine for accommodating us at such short notice). Unfortunately we didn't think to leave a notice on the gate at Terry Reserve ... so much apologies to those members who came along to watch but only found empty grounds. We will know to leave a notice next time.

Shortly after Brett we had the April competition. Again we were very lucky, the weather was almost perfect; after some significant rain, a dry spell and then a late shower just providing enough moisture to make the ground nice and springy. Much thanks again to Virbac for sponsoring the competition and providing the wormer pastes as prizes for the class winners. Spot yourself in the photos from the comp later in this newsletter !!

Our next competition is just around the corner – Sunday 20 June. An entry form can be found in this newsletter. Fill it in and send it off as soon as possible – entries close Wednesday 19 May – don't delay, get them in now ... we've been getting a number of late entries and whilst we accommodate these wherever possible, given my work workload over the next few months I'm not promising I'll be able to this time. Also, please please check the details on your entry, firstly that you have included all required details, then especially the phone number, the legibility of the email address, and that you have included your horses bridle number if you want to ride official.

Finally as always, happy riding ... see you all at the next event ...

The Art of Rugging

By Katherine McMaster

To rug or not to rug that is the question.....

Why Rug?

Rugging your horse has a number of advantages

1. It helps to keep them clean
2. It stops them being annoyed by biting nasty insects
3. It prevents sunburn and sunbleaching in summer
4. It can maintain body condition in winter
5. It can prevent fungal skin conditions such as rain scald
6. Because we love them!

But rugging is time expensive and a commitment to a pattern of horse husbandry. Once a horse is rugged you can't just decide not to because its too cold and rainy to go out in the weather or leave heavy rugs on because you have a hangover or are staying at a friends place.

Rules of Rugging

1. Ensure rugs are a good fit (see footnote on fitting)
2. Ensure rugs fit the purpose intended
3. Ensure rugs are reasonably clean and free from build up of hair, mud and creepy crawlies.
4. Make sure the horse is not too hot! Over rugging can cause coat bleaching, skin problems and dehydration because the horse gets too hot, sweaty and can't generally get the rug off themselves.

A guide that I use...In winter is that they are just slightly warmer than the temperature I am and that their coat is dry, if I want to snuggle up under the rug with them then it's a good temperature.

...in summer ...that they are cooler than the ambient temperature, the white or mesh rugs should reflect heat making the horse cooler, some days though it is just too hot, usually over 35c when I will leave them naked as it is just too hot!

5. A horse will be much more comfy in a cotton and one warm rug or combo than half a dozen rugs with multiple leg straps between their legs, its easier for you to change them too.

6. Rugging will not make the coat go short in winter, this is all due to sunlight hours but if you start to rug heavier when the nights get cooler then the coat will generally stay shorter, working horses in winter will also keep the coat shorter due to increased metabolism.

7. If you clip your horse it will need to be rugged to replace the hair you shaved off, as a rough guide, one blanket warmth extra to what you would use if not clipped. Clipped horses skin can be prone to rubbing so a clean cotton rug and or satin shoulder bib is advisable, also using a coat sheen once a week as part of your normal grooming will help stop shoulder rub and prevent static.

8. Allow sunlight on your horse's coat, if it's a nice day let them have a few hours in their birthday suit, even in winter, they need the vitamin D, so you have to brush the dirt and mud off after, think of it as exercise. J

9. If you don't fully unrug, ensure that the mane is combed out everyday as hoods and combos have a tendency to rub out the mane because of the weight and a build up of dirt, sweat, grime and dead skin cells on the inside of the fabric. I give the mane a squirt of no-knots to keep it slippery and nourished.

10. On wet summer days it is best to leave the horse unrugged as having a wet rug on can make the horse cold as the weight of the wet fabric flattens the coat against the skin. A horse naturally fluffs the coat up to create an air pocket to keep the water and cold away from the skin.

Some tips for the care of your Rug or Combo that will ensure years of warmth and protection of your horses and ponies. of making your leg appear longer! Let dry and polish as before.

1. Always redo up legstraps before removing rug from horse to avoid hitting horse or yourself with clips and to ensure straps do not get trod on or caught on fences etc that you may hang it over.
2. Ensure all legstraps and surcingles are tighten sufficiently to ensure optimum fit and comfort and to avoid risk of horse catching their legs on them when rolling or lying down.
3. Allow rug to dry fully before putting away.
4. Do not let mud dry in clips or buckles if possible. Rinse out and apply a little WD40 spray.
5. If your horse has enjoyed a good wallow in the mud, you can let the mud dry and then brush off with a stiff brush.
6. It is recommended to hang rug when not being used in a sheltered place away from direct sunlight and strong winds, as these can deteriorate the fabric and damage the rug.
7. We recommend the use of cotton under rugs as these are easier to clean and healthy for your horses coat and skin.

8. When cleaning the waterproof rugs and combos, use a mild soap and soft brush for home cleaning. Do not use bleach. Harsh detergents will remove the waterproofing. This can be re-coated.

9. We recommend before storage of rugs or combos when not being used the professional cleaning services of Clippity Clop Cleaners www.clippity-clop.com who also do repairs and re-proofing.

To measure your horse or pony for a rug if unsure of size, measure from the middle of the chest where the buckle would sit, around the shoulder and straight back to the roundest part of the rump. This can be done with a sewing tape measure. Please note that rugs are measured in feet and inches.

Happy rugging and I hope to see shiny healthy horses in their fabulous winter woolies.

Cheers

Horse sports are a dangerous recreational activity and horses can act in a sudden and unpredictable (changeable) way, especially if frightened or hurt.

There is a significant risk that serious INJURY or DEATH may result from horse sport activities.

I understand that any such non-compliance may result in injury, death and/or permanent disability as a result of my failure to comply.
